TEACHERS' EXAMINATION

1880-81. Belmont County, Ohio. Belmont County, Ohio.
turday of August, St. Clairsville;
"Sept. Bellaire;
"October, Barneaville,
October, Martin's Ferry;
Nov., Morristown;
Dec., St. Clairsville,
January, Bellaire;
February, Barneaville;
March, Belmont;
April, Eridgeport;
April, Glencoe;
May, Flushing;
June, St. Clairsville;
June, Bellaire,
close of Institute at St. Clairsville. Also at close of Institute at St. Clairsville.
Examinations begin at 9. a.m.
Testimoniais of charactor are required if pplicant is not known to the Board; and vidences of success in teaching are allowed neir proper weight.

A. A. CLAK.

A. YARNELL

I. M. YARNELL

Ex. Boat

A. A. CLAE, J. M. YARNELL.

CHALKLEY DAWSON COUNTY SURVEYOR. 18 now prepared to attal, o his official to ties, and wishes all persons addressing his to luralsh Township and Section where sur veys are to be made. Fees $500 per day, 28-17 St. Clairsville, Belmont county.

First National Bank St. Clairsville, Ohio.

CAPITAL $100,000

Banking hours from 9 a m. until 3 p.m. Discount days Tuesdays, at 10 a.m. Money received on deposit.

Collections made and proceeds remitted promptly. Exchange bought and sold-

Practical Paper Hanger, ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO.

Graining, Glazing, Painting and Papering lone on short actice. All branches of the trade will receive prompt attention.

Orders solicited. ap1-5tf

A. BRANUM & SONS, Wholesale

BANK STREET.

BRIDGEPORT, OHIO.

Carpets and Oil Gloths. Paper,

Widow Shades, Mats, Rugs and Tabl Covres House Furnishing Goods, A larger stock and greater variety than can be ound in any other establishment in this city and at prices lower than offered for many years. Persons going to housekeeping can save money by giving us a call.

HARBOUR & DITTMAN. 148 MAIN STREET. WHEELING, W. VA.

JAMES DUNCAN Main St., One Door East of Smith's Mill,

BRIDGEPORT, OHIO, Keeps on hand a full stock of goods embracing whatever belongs to

A First-Class Family Grocery Goods Fresh and Peur!

Prices as Low as the Lowest

GIVE US A CALL

National Planing Mills

BRIDGEPORT, TO., J, R. BAGG & SONS, PROP'S

Manufacturers of Doors, Sash, Shutters, Frames, Mould ings, Brackets, Palings, Stair Rail-ings, Ballusters, News, and DRESSED LUMBER. Of every description and lealers in Lumber, Shingles, Scantling. Lath, Joists, Frame-Timber, Fire Brick and Builders' Material in General.

UNDERTAKING

ALEXANDER BARRETT. SHEPHERD DAVI BARRETT & DAVIS.

DEALERS IN COFFINS CASKETS AND ALL STYLES OF UNDERTAKING GOODS.

LOW PRICES! They are prepared to attend finerals atabort office, having in connects a with their es-ablishment a good Hearse, safe Horses and a areful Drive.

BARRETT & DAVIS, Cor. Main and Fair Ground Streets. March '759 ly.

The most complete institution in the Unit ed States for the thorough practical education of young and middle-aged men. Students admitted at any time. For circulars giving full particulars, address J. C. SMITH, A. M., Pittsburgh, Pa. 11 18-8w

Belmont Chronicle to the extent of an epidemic.

W.A. HUNT, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Every Thursday

Terms of Subscription: Two Dollars Per Year in Advance.

If not paid within the year 25 per cent will added for each year it remains unpaid. OFFICE - South side Main street, nearly op posite Public School building-

Belmont County Official Directory.

Common Pleas Judge-Wm. Okey. Probate Judge—Thomas Cochran. Clerk of Courts—Alex. C. Darrah. Sheriff—Samuel Hilles.

Auditor—William N. Coffland. Treasurer—Hamilton Enton. Prosecuting Attorney—Alfred H. Mitchell. Recorder—W. S. Hobbs. Commissioners-Owen Mehan, Morris Cope, enry Frasher.
Surveyor—Chalkley Dawson.
Coroner—Thomas Garrett.

Infirmary Directors—Joseph Bailey, Wm. Parkinson, James B. Ritchey. Church Directory

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH-Rev. R. Alexander, pastor. Public worship every

Masonic Directory. BELMONT LODGE, No. 16, F. & A. M. Meets every Wednesday night, on or be-

JAMES MELLOR, W. M.

JESSE B. MEYER, Sec'y.

BELMONT COUNCIL, No. 54, R. & S. M. Meets second Tuesday of each month. H. R. BUMGARNER, T. 1. M. F. D. Bailey, Sec'y.

HOPE COMMANDERY, No. 26, K. T. tated conclaves, first Tuesday of each H. R. BUMGARNER, E. C.

St. Clairsville Professional Cards.

C. W. CARROLL. ATTORNEY AT LAW

W. S. KENNON, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Patterson's Bleck, op Treas Office, Main St

Practices before all the Courts.

H. & W. MITCHELL, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, On corner op. St. Clair and National Hotels

EMERSON & KENNON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Practice in all Courts of Ohio. Barnesville

ST. CLAIR KELLY. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office one door east of Court House

Practices before all Courts. D. T. COWEN.

ATTORNEY AT LAW, North side of Main St., east of Mariett Practices before all Courts.

P. TALLMAN & SON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Office Northwest Cor. Main and Marietta Sts. J. F. Tallman, Notary Public

S. A. JOHNSTON, Attorney and Counselor at Law. Office, three doors east of Court House. Will practice in Belmort and adjoining MARBLE AND CRANITE AT ST. CLAIRSVILLE, AND SAVE TEN PER CENT. Best Italian Marble, Scotch and American Granite Monuments, Head-stone, &c. done in best style.

EVANS & BENTLEY. Estin 'es furnised on application. 1,23-ly Miscellaneous Business Cards.

ATTORNEY AT LAW. Office in rooms formerly occupied by Dr. M W. Junkins, on Beimoni street, BELLAIRE, OHIO,

Will practice in the Common Pleas, State WM. H. TALLMAN,

ATTORNEY AT LAW BELLAIRE, OHIO. Collections promptly attend to

TAYLOR & HOLLISTER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. S. W. corner Fifth and Walnut Sts., Johnson CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Practice | the United States. D S. & A. P. LACEY. ATTORNEYS AT LAW. And Solicitors of Patents and Claims

Practice in the Supreme Court and Court e:
Claims, and appear before all the Departments.
Promptness and satisfaction given in all business entrusted to them. Correspondence solicited. 529 7th St., op. P. O. Department.

WASHINGTON D C sep28sf | Supreme Court and Court e:
Sus. Under this bill, the North would lose five and gain ten, and the South would lose five and gain seven, makin a balance of three in favor of the South.

DIPHTHERIA is raging in New York

JUDGE W. B. WOODS, the newly appointed Justice of the Supreme Court, took his seat on the bench Wednesday of

THERE is a report current at Washingon that Blaine is to be made Secretary of State, and Foster Secretary of the Interior in Garfield's Cabinet.

JOHN L. MAXWELL, charged with em bezzling the funds of the city gas office

GENERAL JOHN F. MILLER WAS nominated by the Republican members

George Brown.

D. D. T. COWEN, Pres.

H. C. Welder, Cashier.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH—
Dreaching: 11 a.m.; 7 p.m. Subbath School:
2:30 p.m. Young men's meeting: Friday 7 p.m.; general prayer meeting: Thursday 7 p.m.
Strangers are cordially invited to all our services.

Probably one of the most valuable maidenly reserve which is so beautiful and so serviceable an ornament. It likewise detracts from the Christian dignity of womanhood, for one to be all her life addressed as if she were a service. experience and political matters.

Painter and Glazier,

United Presbyterian Church—
School- 10 a.m. Public worship: 11 a.m.
Weekly prayer meeting: Friday 3 p.m.

Experience and political matters.

A million peasants are in stress for it an name, and having it used. would be in no danger of starving.

cent order to put on King George's mon-change all that. ument the words "The last King of Hanover," has made the dead severeign's son still more angry.

The late Dr. Chapin had a pretty little completely. Arising and picking up the mutilated tile, he contemplated it with the remark, "I presume you thought that was a silk hat: but now it is satin."

one of them is able to recognize a bold, Suhday School." bad man when he sees one.

In some of the islands of the South

Queen Victoria has just given the Alkilled the American physician.

each. After some discussion the bill one of the most remarkable statements which they can't afford to do without was referred to the Committee on Cen- in criminal annals. That a boy of six- There isn't enough brains put into the sus. Under this bill, the North would teen should have the nerve to consign

HON, O. D. CONGER has been nemi- THE queen of England, in her speech ated for United States Senator by the at the opening of Parliament spoke of Republicans of the Michigan Legisla- the relations with other powers as "Father who travels the road so la "Hush, my child, 'tis the candidate; ture. The contest was between ex-dov, friendly, but alluded to some portions Fit example of human woe-Bagley and Mr. Conger; on the 7th bal- of the Berlin treaty still unfulfilled. She Early he comes and late he goes lot Conger won by a vote of 59 to 57 regretted that the rising in the Trans- He greets the women with courtly grace, TEN PERSONS—two women and eight plan for securing the settlers full con- He cans to the rence the narmer at work, He bores the merchant, he bores the clerk, children—were burned to death or sufficient on a cated one day last week, by a fire in a pressed the wish to have the opportunitenement house in New York, and six ty for friendly action on her part, with THE official vote for Governor of caused by the explosion of some gaso- Basutoland. The still unsettled condi-Maine gives a majority of 26 for General Plaisted, the Fusion candidate, provided all the irregular votes are counted on all the irregu some of those who escaped. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Rev. R. Sign provinces. The Saratoff Assembly reports that 750,000 peasants are starving in that province, and it is stated that service, 7. Sabbath School, 9:00 a.m. Young men's prayer meeting: Tuesday 7 p.m.; general prayer meeting: Wednesday 7 p.m. Strangers welcome to all services.

Probably one of the most valuable of the principles of the development of the principles of the land law of 1870, and announced a bill for establishing county governments in Ireland, and for abolishing men's prayer meeting: Wednesday 7 p.m.; general prayer meeting: Wednesday 7 p.m. Strangers welcome to all services.

Probably one of the most valuable maidenly reserve which is so beautiful the wells in right maidenly reserve which is so beautiful t ting down, carelessly, mashed the hat virtually retires from ownership in fa order for the articles with his address vor of Mr. Roswell Smith (who has al- for having them correctly forwarded, ways been the business manager of the but the swindler has adroitly got his company), Mr. R. W. Gilder, associate signature to a very different document. editor of Scribner's: Mr. A. W. Drake, The only safety is to NOT write one's upon" to publish it as genuine chiefly by active in building up the business. stances. the representations of certain members Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons still reof the Democratic Committee. Barnum tain their minority interest. The leadsays he was "imposed upon" also. It is ing publications of this company are really doing a great wrong to permit Scribner's Monthly, St. Nicholas, a mag-

A LAD in the Kansas Penitentiary. or she has worn many suits of clothing who confessed a few years ago to hav- or few-whether they were rich or Pacific where the clam attains a great ing murdered at Topeka a man named plain, fashionable or off-style. Rational size, diving for clams is one of the occu- Farris, now poses before the public as a people are finding out, with encourapations of the natives. The diver thrusts devoted son. He says he became con- ging rapidity, that even the little world a sharp iron rod into the mouth of the vinced at once that his father had com- of one's friends and acquaintances cares clam, which closes its shell with such te. mitteed the murder, but at the Coroner's vastly less what kind of raiment one nacity that it can be pulled out of its inquest shielded him and convicted him- wears, than how one conducts oneself bed. Occasionally divers who have self. The father then got out on bail, inside of it, while the outside world, for carelessly allowed themselves to be and the boy remained in jail five months whose eyes so many people dress, cares caught in the grip of too powerful a clam | During his confinement the father visit- nothing all. Interpreted as it was meant, have only saved their lives by cutting ed the son frequently. On one of these there is truth enough in the saying that off their fingers, and leaving them at the visits the boy was told that there was a "it is not what is on the plates, but what danger, he stirred not—only braced his this year from Montreal to Washington, in the Truth in October, and of the a cupboard in the jailer's office, and the We have, as our readers have had occapert Medal to Surgeon Henry Grier, of father wanted them secured and burn- sion to know, no sympathy with the afthe British Army Medical Department, ed. There were two doors between the fected indifference to good food which for heroic conduct like that of the brave prison and the office, but to the surprise characterize some self-styled "high Brooklyn doctor who recently lost his of the boy the jailer strangely left these thinkers." Such people are ordinarily will be instantly killed!" life in attendance upon a diphtheria pa- two doors unlocked and the bag was not to be trusted behind the pantry door tient. Surgeon Grier found Lieutenant very easily got, and, in the presence of when there are any odd joints or mince Graham dying of suffocation from the other prisoners, burned in the stove. pies within reach. But there is, neverdiphtheritic membrane, an operation for tracheotomy having failed to relieve Penitentiary. These boots, it seems, ed on the tables of those who need to the reins, and, turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and, turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and, turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and, turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and, turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and, turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and, turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins, and turning to the affrighted to relieve the reins and the relieve the relieve the reins and the relieve him. All other efforts failing, Grier were the father's, and bore marks that save it to spend in oteer directions. Nosucked the membrane and poisonous potnted to his guilt. After that the body ever suffered for want of dessert. matter from his patient's throat and, boy was persuaded to sacrifice himself if the dinner was good for anything. happily, without the evil effect which to save his father, upon the promise No normal appetite requires the variety that a pardon would be procured in a that cumbers the breakfust and dinner few years on the ground of his youth- tables of even the so-called middle-Mr. Springer, last week presented in fulness. Afterward the mother visited classes. As for the many-coursed dysthe Lower House of Congress, a bill the prisoner, and he thereupon confessed pepsia breeders -the soup, fish, meats, providing for the apportionment of Representatives in Congress among the several States. The bill fixes the number of members of the House, during the the charge, and wholly exonerated his ther injury to nimself, is undeserving of next decade, at 293, the same as at pres- father from all complicity in the bloody pity. The point of these and other like ent. By this bill Alabama, Florida, Indeed. After the prisoner had been in remarks that might be made on sensible diana, Illinois, Louisiana, Massachusetts, the Penitentiary a year, his father and classification of needless wants and the Maryland, New Hampshire, Ohio, Ver- mother went to California. After five highest needs, is that many people could, mont and Tennessee, would each lose years the mother returned and endeay- if they would enjoy not only the Sumone member; Pennsylvania, two; and ored to procure a pardon for her boy, mer trips and vacations which they New York three; Arkansas, California, but failed. This intelligence was conlightful and helpful things. Half a dol-Iowa, Michigan, Mississippi, South Car- veyed by letter to the father, and he lar a day saved on perfectly useless exolina and Maryland would each gain killed himself. The knowledge of the penditures would give many a family a one member; Minnesota and Nebraska, suicide, however, did not reach the boy delightful trip to the mountains or a detwo each; and Kansas and Texas, three until some time last September. This is or a season of Summer rest and change small, but the flames spread so rapidly or later. She entertained a more favorthat the escape of the women and chilable expectation of the revenue for the Has he nothing at home to do?" dren, who were about eating their year than could be formed at its com- "My dear, whenever a man is down, breakfasts, was cut off almost instant- mencement. Regretting the disturbed Too stupid to preach and too proud or wheeling, has been discharged by the Circuit Court, on a technicalliy in the much presence of mind was shown by Lords and gentlemen that proposals Too timid to rob, and too lazy to dig. would be immediately submitted to them Then over his horse his legs he flings for intrusting the government with ad- And to the dear people this song he BISHOP ELDER, of Cincinnati, advises ditional powers necessary in her judgof the California Senate and House for Roman Catholic parents to give their ment, not only for the vindication of or-

United States Senator from that State-the vote standing: Miller 63, Booth 5.

The vote standing: Miller 63, Booth 5. THERE is great distress in the Rustian provinces. The Saratoff Assembly sign provinces. The Saratoff Assembly a young girl is grown up, it is not well ther development of the principles of a young girl is grown up, it is not well ther development of the principles of What's his record? How does he ztand

Signing One's Name. A young man traded a poor for good horse, giving his note of $90, payaher life addressed as if she were a pet child, instead of a lady owning a Christian name, and entitled to the respect of payment he claimed that it was not due by any means, and a careful examina-Weekly prayer meeting: Friday 3 p.m. Monthly prayer meeting: Last Saturday of each month, 2 p.m. Woman's Missionary Society: Last Saturday each month, p.m. District prayer meetings: First Tuesdays, Wednesdays Thursdays and Saturdays each with popular freedom ambitions, and with popular freedom that the samination of General Garbield is likely to be signalized by the admission of two or three new States to pay the note, on the ground that "he (the ambitions, and with popular freedom)." ambitions, and with popular freedom the Union. Dakota has already suffi- son) was in a fair way to have plenty of ing: Second Saturday each month at the Parsonage, 1 p.m. the Union. Dakota has already suffi- son) was in a fair way to have plenty of cient population to advance from the other accounts to settle about the time condition of Territorial tutelage, but the note, as written, would be due."-MRS. HABRIET N. COOPER, a colored may be kept back a year or two by the Thie is an illustration of how easy it is woman, died at Chaltenham, one of the desire of the people along the line of the to entirely change the purport of a writsuburbs of St. Louis, New Year's day, Northern Pacific Railroad for a separate ten agreement so as not to be noticed by aged one hundred and fifteen years. government. They are about as far the casual observer. In this first num-She weighed four hundred pounds. Mrs. from Yankton in point of time as Iowa ber of the volume, we wish to impress Cooper was the mother of twenty-five is from New York City. The comple- our former advice upon every reader, Grocers,

St. CLAIRSVILLE CHAPTER, No. 17, Cooper was the mother of twenty-nve children, the youngest of whom is sixty-tions, first Friday of each month.

C. W. CARROLL, H. P. Cooper was the mother of twenty-nve children, the youngest of whom is sixty-tion of the railroad lines to Montana along. "How much you will have to answer for in the day of final reckoning, dired and one years old, and still living."

St. CLAIRSVILLE CHAPTER, No. 17, Cooper was the mother of twenty-nve children, the youngest of whom is sixty-tion of the railroad lines to Montana along. "How much you will have to answer for in the day of final reckoning, dired and one years old, and still living."

Level P. Market Street. two years old. Her husband is one hunwill undoubtedly give that Territory inany paper for a stranger. Millions of swer for in the day of final reckoning, two or three years. New Mexico might who have thoughtlessly, or carelessly, or ing brothers and sisters!" Princess Frederica of Hanover is still have demanded admission long ago, but ignorantly signed their names. Beguiled unforgiven by her family for her mar her slow-going people were indifferent by the promises of large profits, they mult, the drawing away of teams on eiriage with a mere baron. Their anger is to the privileges of self-government, and have undertaken to act as "agents" for still hot, too, against Queen Victoria for preferred to save the expense of State this, that, or the other invention, or a lot startled him and he knew something unher hearty encouragement of the Prinher hearty encouragement of the Prinmachinery. The new American elements, new patents, spring matusual was taking place. Then came the what will become of us—of the children that State. Jayne says the "conspiracesses' mesalliance, and the Queen's regoing into the Territory will soon tresses, etc., etc., with the guarantee shout of "Runaway!" and he that all not sold would be taken back. They give notes for the payment with MR. ROSWELL SMITH, who, with Dr. the verbal (or may be separate written) Holland and Charles Scribner, Sr., estab- agreement that the note will not be collished the joint stock company of Scrib- lectable if the articles are not sold. But ner & Co., in 1870, has, by a purchase of the seller soon disposes of the good note talent for puns. Dr. Emerson on one shares from Dr. Holland, now become at a bank or elsewhere and disappears. occasion preached for Dr. Chapin, and the owner of a controlling interest in His guarantee amounts to nothing, he is on entering the pulpit laid his silk hat the company. While Dr. Holland retains out of reach, and the innocent buyer of on the seat and then laid a paper on it. the editorship of Scribner's Monthly he the note collects it. Very often the vicupon the curbstone. Dr. Chapin afterward came in, and, sit-keeps only a few shares of stock and tim signs what he supposes is merely an ble bays that were tearing along, mad TRUTH confesses that the Morey letter manager of the art department, and oth- name and not even a pen mark for any not have troubled himself, deep as was bed, clapped her tiny hands and shoutwas a forgery, and that it was "imposed ers of the younger men who have been stranger whatever -under any circum- his affection for blooded steeds, for he ed, in true childish glee and wonder:

Needs and Wants.

The mistake of people as to their ne cessities causes a large share of the such guileless persons as Barnum and azine for girls and boys; "Songs for the chronic "hardupness" in the world, and the publisher of Truth to go about in Sanctuary," "Spiritual Songs for Church not a little of the disappointments and this wicked city unprotected. Neither and Choir," and "Spiritual Songs for the unhappiness. It is wonderful, for example, how little difference it makes with one at the end of the year, whether he lightful trip to the mountains or the sea.

Everything good in the eating have risen above iron-handed poverty. and the month will end with little snow at for the laboring man in rep meat.

Meanwhile he was hurrying to busi- on the ground.

The Candidate.

"Father who travels the road so late?" vaat had set aside, for the time, any He kisses the baby's dirty lace, He calls to the fence the facmer at work,

> "Howdy, howdy, howdy do? How is your wife, and how are you? Ah! it fits my fist as no other can,

The horny hand of the workingman." "Husband, who is that man at the gate?

sings:

"Howdy, howdy, howdy do? How is your wife, and how are you? Ah! it fits my fist as no other can, The horny hand of the workingman,"

At home; no matter about his hand, Be it hard or soft, so it be not prone Is he honest and capable?-he is Cheer such a one till the welkin rings, Join in the chorus when thus he sings:

"Howdy, howdy, howdy do? Ah! it fits my fist as no other can, The horny hand of the workingman.

TOM ORTON.

Broadway, brilliant and gay, as if there were nothing of poverty or human suffering in the world—as if none in the great city were familiar with hunger and strange physician who had been sum- have been discovered on the upper leftgreat city were familiar with hunger and moned; "though I cannot account for hand corner of the envelope by the same sickness; as if there were never to be the marks upon your side, my man."

"Probably he hurt himself when he means." any awakening from a golden dream of stopped the runaway horses," was sug-

"Ah, thoughtless wealth and fashion, murmured Tom Orton, bitterly, as he saw fur-clad forms, and pampered thousand would have escaped alive!" steeds, and richly-mounted harness, and replied the physician, with pressed lips before it was published in the Truth. steeds, and richly-mounted harness, and gilded sleighs, and costly robes dash be done now is to get him home. Then his counsel, refused to publish it, believalong. "How much you will have to an- I will make a more minute examina-

Suddenly a confused cry, a wild tu-felt that life or property, or both, were being whirled on to destruction. "Are you mad?" asked many, as they every arm nerved to the utmost toward mitted the letter to ran to a place of safety, and he starding relief. He gave no heed to the warning. He had braved death far too often to shrink and deep. from it in any event, and most certainly when at such a distance. His eyes for you, Jenny, and the children," and Speaker Randall, who happened to be were fixed up the street on a team of nowith fright and surging the sleigh from the most passionate. "But it is ever side to side-running at their utmost thus. We give our lives freely to please speed, each striving to outdo the other, straining every nerve-running away was not at that moment particularly in sympathy with wealth. It was quite pointed, and in the doorway stood a another matter that chained him. At the first outcry he has sprung to pulse almost to cease to beat. In the sleigh was a young and beautithought of his Jenuy and their little ones, and resolved to save them. The impulse was noble, but how was it to be accomplished? Far beyond any human control were the frantic horses. To attempt to seize the reins as they dashed past would be madness. He saw thissaw that the course of the horses would bring them directly upon him and, tho' muscles and nerves, and set his teeth D. C., and that a cold snap during the Weaver letter, which was published in with determination.

and would have drawn him away. "You

Tom Orton shook him off just as the horses reached him, watched his opportunity, seized upon the harness as they were sweeping past, sprung lightly upon woman and screaming children, shout-master, and the sharp curb cutting deep- of the weather will probably remind us to the Republicans of Maine. y into their mouths brought them to a of some of what are called "real old-The crowd cheered lustily-the police for her preserver, that she might thank disappeared. "Who could it have been?" questione bloodless lips.

"A brave fellow," was the response average expenditure of money.-Golden ness, more time had been occupied in the rescue than he had thought possible, and though applause was dear to him (as to all), yet he could not stay to listen, and The Guilty Parties Said to be Known, as for risking his life for money, he had not even dreamed of such a thing. Out of breath he dashed into the dress ing-room, and was received with reproof "Could not help it," he replied; "I saw a pair of fiery horses running away, with a sleigh and a woman and two children; thought of my Jenny and children, and had to stop to save them."

He told his story very briefly and modestly while getting ready, and soon was dashing down the arena upon a spiwondrous horsemanship."

The audience applauded to the echo, and, carried away by the excitement, he rashly determined to execute his most young and wild.

The result was soon plainly apparent. ton was hurled heavily to the ground! dim, he gasped for air, and knew nothing more until somewhat revived in the dressing-room, he heard familiar voices.

sobs choked him. "Do not fear for them, Tom," said a will see that you are taken care of."

Many carelessly condemn the ring and the stage, but in the law of suffering their hearts shine upon the surface, and was true as the brother and sisterhood, whose lives are given for the amusement and instruction of others, there would jured man, "but tell me the worst."

gested, and the story told. "Humph! a very dangerous business -next to foolhardy; not one in ten side by side with his sick wife and chiltears.

Very tenderly was the noble-hearted

-of the children? We will starve and die together!"

They all looked around anxiously for THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE

"I can bear anything," said Tom, "but he entirely broke down. "And I could curse the doctor for an unfeeling wretch," blurted out one of they care nothing for us driverless. Had that been all he would woke his little girl. She raised up in "Mamma! papa! see! see! an angel!" All eyes were turned in the direction beautiful woman, leaning upon the arm of the physician. Yes; an angel had come to them. Tom and half climbed a lamp-post; and so Orton had risked his life to save that ing whatever to do with the forgery obtained a clearer view—one that thrill- one daughter of Dr. Armitage and his further than that he was subsequently ed his heart to the core, caused his grandchildren, and the merest chance ful woman, pale with terror, and clasp- ble angel appeared upon earth, even ing two children to her breast. Orton upon the day when, alike upon the hillupon earth and good will to men." VENNOR'S WEATHER.

The Sort that He Intends to Give Us the Rest of the Winter.

As will have been seen from the fore-first quarter of this month will preserve the Star, are, he says, to be printed side "My God!" exclaimed a man, who, it for that period. I expect blockades by side in the Truth. From these, he bolder than the rest, sprang forward of snow in the United States about the claims, it will appear to the least prac-7th and 8th of January, and rainy days ticed eye that during the month will be exceedingly BOTH WERE WRITTEN BY ONE AND THE few. The second quarter will open with heavy snow falls, and terminate in a fashioned winters."

The mild spell with which January assisted the woman and children out closes will probably continue well into throw them off the scent by indicating and carried them to a neighboring store, this month, with the exception of a day that Philp was the author of the letter and, as soon as the former had in a or two up to the 12th of the month, measure recovered her senses, she asked with balmy, spring-like weather prevailing in many parts, and snow rapidly and reward him. But he was not to be found. All that could be learned was, that as soon as the trembling steeds had followed by snow storms and cold As a flesh producer, one pound of the color of the been taken charge of by others he had weather throughout Ontario and the eggs is equal to one pound of Western United States. This term will be followed about the 16th by storms of bushel of corn yearly, and to lay twelve the lady, with still ghastly face, and wind, rain and snow previous to the set- dozen, or eighteen pounds of eggs. This ting in of a colder term. With the be- is equivalent to saying that three and "Cannot say," answered a policeman, ginning of the last week of the month one-tenth pounds of corn will produce, "but he was a brave fellow, anyhow. I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands."

I would not have taken the risk he did for thousands." calities. A few days before the close of of corn for its production. When eggs and Some Persons Who Occupy High Places Named in Connection With the Imposition-Facts of the Case.

FAMOUS FORGERY.

NEW YORK, January 5.-The real facts in connection with that daring forgery and base imposition, the Morey Chinese letter, seem to be bound to come rited steed, "charging the world with out at last, and the guilty parties if by some technicality they escape the just penalty of their crime cannot escape the odium which rightly attaches to the comduring acts, forgetting that the horse he mistion of such a deed. B. G. Jayne, a rode had not been trained to them-was detective who has been investigating the matter for the Truth, and upon Though some were accomplished in safe.

ty, yet, when he attempted leaping over ty, yet, when he attempted leaping over a banner, the fluttering frightened the a correspondent this evening. He rehorse, he bolted suddenly, and Tom Or- lated at length Truth's side of the story. He endeavored to rise and make light The letter, he said, had been conceived of pain, but a strange sickness came by a group of newspaper men, who met over him, the light flickered and grew frequently in the Astor House, in this city. He first heard it discussed while sitting in the smoking room of the hotel "O, God! what will become of Jenny by these persons. He did not know and the babies?" he gasped faintly. "I am done for, and—and—" his tears and the Washinnton Post; Huntley, of the Brooklyn Eagle; "Colonel" H. H. Hadlozen hearty voices, and as many grasp- ley, and Colonel Lonergan, of the Hotel ed his hand as could obtain hold, "we Mail, he charged were implicated in the conspiracy.

which contained the letter was one sent such charity is shown that none upon the by General Garfield to Colonel Lonergan, earth is brighter. Ah! if all humanity enclosing a sample of seeds which Lonergan had asked Garfield to procure for him from the Department of Agriculbe far less of trial and suffering in the ture. Lonergan's name and address, No. 82 Nassau street, have been "devel-"Thanks, thanks," murmured the in-oped" from the erasures on the envelope, "A broken leg is all that appears seri- by means of a camera, and the word Jayne showed your correspondent a photographic proof disclosing the outlines as described. He also said that the letter was offered to the Sun ten days it to be a forgery.

Just before it was sent to the Truth fellow taken to his humble abode. The scene, when he was laid upon the bed, itorials on Chinese questions, which were inspired by Josh Hart, who, in his tors" hit upon that time, as in their "Not while we have hands," replied opinion. Apportune to gain a means of his associates, every heart touched and publication. Hart claims to have sub-the physician. But he was not to be and to have had assurances of its genuseen, and their grumbling became loud ineness from Barnum, Smalley, Hewitt, Scott and Cleveland, and also from present on the occasion of its exhibi-

Jayne also asserts that Colonel Hadley, who was much at the Democratic the public, and when anything happens headquarters, had convinced a majority of the gentlemen mentioned before the Tom groaned heavily. The sound letter was seen by them of its genuine-

Jayne also asserted that the letter was drafted by Stilson Hutchings, and that Barnum, Cleveland and Scott knew from the first it was fraudulent.

A mass of matter is to be published in the Truth to show that Philp had nothbreath to be more decyly drawn, and his had given them the knowledge who it made a scapegoat of by Hutchins, Lonergan and their companions. The But never was an equestrian feat bet- means taken to bolster up the letter are ter rewarded, and never a more charita- to be traced to Hutchins and Hadley. The former owned the Union, a paper top and valley, it proclaimed: "Peace published in Manchester, Mass., and in it was published a story tracing the Morey family and unearthing H. S. Morey, the nephew. It was in the Washington Post, controlled by Hutchins, that a letter purporting to come from one Lind! say, but written in reality by Col. Hadley, from Cumberland, was published. The tracing of the forger, Jayne says, cast of December, I anticipate New is to be extensively explained. Fac sim-

SAME PERSON.

He claims that the person who sent cold snap. The middle of the month the forged letter to the Star, has been will bring snow falls which will termi- discovered, but he declined to name him nate in milder weather toward the end at present. He said, however, that he is of the third quarter. This thaw, which one of those already mentioned in conwill be interrupted by a brief cold spell, nection with the Morey letter. The "Keep quiet! I will save you!" will extend from about the 18th of the Meaver letter was sent to the Star as month into February. The record of a "missing link" at the time that that block had been traversed the horses this month will show it will have been journal was endeavoring to show that were made to realize that he was their a severe one, and the general condition the Greenback candidate had sold out

Jayne also says that Colonel Lonergan wilfully deceived Stoughton, Bliss, Day enport and Bell, and that he attempted Jayne said that the above was the gist of the facts, which are to be the foundation of a series of articles to be hen may be calculated to consume one "and I would give very much to know his name and where he is to be found."

But the lady departed without obtaining the desired informatian, and the sensitiveness of Tom Orton caused him to lose the one opportunity of his life to